REDBRIDGE LCC AGM

Friday 9th April,
7.00pm

32, Kings Avenue, Woodford Green (Richard and May's house, near Woodford Green tube)

Will Redbridge LCC disappear
into a giant pothole?

Come to our AGM -volunteer to take up just one job- and help your local group stay on road.

Redbridge LCC is a lively and active group. which chalked up a very successful 2009. Chris and Gill feel it is the right time to retire as Co-ordinators. Don't be put off by not wanting to take on too much - to find out more about what's involved, contact either Chris or Gill for an informal chat:

Chris: 020 8989 6285

GENERAL ELECTION

2010: VOTE BIKE!

Key question for candidates:

How do you intend to encourage more people to cycle in the Outer London Boroughs?

With the general election coming up, now is the time to make sure that the next government does as much as it can for cycling. Before you cast your vote, CTC's Vote Bike campaign is your chance to press your local candidates on their commitment to cycling. Please write to your prospective MPs and ask them to respond to CTC's Vote Bike Manifesto, which sets out the developments needed to make cycling for transport, health and leisure mainstream. You can send emails to those standing for parliament via CTC's Vote Bike webpage and view their responses.

NEW NEWHAM RIDES

Spring into Summer

The first New Newham Rides of 2010
are on Saturday 17 April , Saturday 8 May , and Saturday 29 May .

The rides start at 10.30 from outside Stratford Station and finish back there at about 15.00. No need to book. Just turn up on the day.

These leisurely, social, rides with a café stop, are almost entirely off-road along paths suitable for all types of bikes in good working order. The places of scenic and architectural interest on this Newham route include - the Greenway, 2012 Stadium, Three Mills (Grade I listed), Royal Docks, the ExCel 2012 venue,
Thames Barrier Park, Brick Lane
Music Hall , London City Airport, Beckton Alps and St Mary Magdalene Church (Grade I listed).

Critical Mass

<http://cmlondon.enrager.net/>
Massive ride leaving Waterloo Bridge at 6.00 to 6.30pm on the last Friday of every month. You really should go at least once in your life and see the sights of central London in a group of hundreds of cyclists. It is a great experience. Richard Everett usually goes, leaving Walthamstow about 5:15 p.m.
